BEAUTIFUL SLEEP BEAUTIFUL SLEEP

— is an expression used for sound sleep. Nothing is so gratifying to the nerves, heart,
and head, as perfect sleep—a companion of good digestion and a healthy liver. A tired digestion fails to assimilate, or take care of, the food we eat. Something bracing or invigorating is needed for the liver, stomach, and intestines.
This is where you will find Dr. Pierce's Fleasant Fellets do the most good. They are tiny sugar-coated pills, scarcely larger than mustard seed, made of concentrated botanical extracts. These "Fellets" are easily dissolved in the stomach and absorbed into the blood, stimulating a flow of bile from the liver, and arousing to activity all the glandular secretions. Thus they act in nature's own way. -is an expression

A Wanderer from Space.

J. K. Mattox, a well-known citizen of Simpson county, Miss., who owns an extensive farm at Campbell's Creek, about 18 miles southeast of that place, went to town the other morning and told of a remarkable occurrence of a huge meteoric stone, which fell near his house on the night of July 21. Mr. Mattox says about 10 o'clock at night he went into his barnyard, as he had been accustomed to do before retiring, A particle is applied into each nostril and is sgreeable. The night was somewhat cloudy, but not especially dark. He had visited his stable and barnyard and cloudy, but not especially dark. He had visited his stable and barnyard and was on the point of returning to his house when he heard a peculiar hissing sound near, and at the same instant a luminous glow fell all around him, as if the moon had suddenly emerged from the clouds. He looked up and was almost paralyzed at the sight of a brilliant ball of fire descending through the air with the speed of lightning, and having a comet-like tail extending far up into the heavens.

The descent was only visible for a second, but in that brief space he says he suffered unspeakable terror. The ball struck the earth with a dull report 300 yards from where he was It was some minutes before he could recover the use of his limbs. Then, running to the house, he aroused the family and several laborers about the place, telling them a comet had struck the earth and they had only a few minutes to live. In a short while the whole plantation was up, and men and children were heard crying and supplicating heaven for mercy. Seeing that nothing further happened, and being a practical man, as soon as his alarm subsided Mr. Mattox prevailed on two or three men to accompany him to the spot. They could not get closer than 30 yards on account of the heat and noxious fumes of sulphur and gas which the stone emitted. It gave out a ruddy glow, which illuminated the atmosphere for some distance around, by the light of which they could see the grass and twigs all about it in a circle of 50 feet or more in diameter, burned and singed to ashes. The stone siz-zled and steamed, and shot out jets of zled and steamed, and snot out jets of steam or vapor from a thousand pores. Mr. Mattox and several neighbors visited if the next day, when he was able to get a closer view. By daylight it showed up a dull dingy black and was full of pores, which still shot out jets of vapor of an offensive smell, which almost stilled one. The stone is evi-Checitars froe.
